A Letter from the Political Science Department

The Political Science Department is proud to present the seventh edition of the Susquehanna University Political Review. This journal presents some of the best undergraduate research on politics that has been done by Susquehanna students throughout the past academic year, highlighting work that has been done in classes and in our Senior Capstone. In addition to recognizing high quality student scholarship, we hope that this journal will encourage upcoming students in their research efforts by showing them the kind of work that can be done by students who engage in research that is both rigorous and creative. Congratulations to Torin McFarland, Christina Martin, Hope Swedeen, and Kira Zimmerman for setting a high bar for future students.

While the journal is supported by the Department, the work is done by the student editorial board who solicits and reviews manuscripts, and chooses the finalists, and who make sure we are ready to go to press. This journal would not exist without the many hours of work they put into this project. The final product is a testament to their efforts. Thanks to this year's editorial board:

Fatima Faris, Class of 2017
Maribeth Guarino, Class of 2017
Alexis Bishop, Class of 2018
Martin Hooper, Class of 2018
Callen Elslager, Class of 2019

The final thank you goes to Mr. Brian Gilbert '10 who is the founder of this publication. Without his ideas and encouragement this journal would never have been launched. We're proud to turn his idea into a tradition.
